
Commitment to Scripture

The Scriptures, both Old and New Testament, are the inspired Word of God, without error in the original writing, the complete revelation of His will for the salvation of people and the Divine and final authority for all Christian faith and life. In your own words, write what the Scriptures mean to you personally and how you use them.

Undoubtedly, the Scriptures are unique. There are 66 books spanning 1600 years that were written by 40 authors from every walk of life: kings, prophets, philosophers, poets, a doctor, businessmen, religious leaders. The Old Testament is the preparation, the gospels are the manifestation, Acts is the propagation, the Epistles give the explanation and Revelation is the completion.
